REGAL SILVER MINE

1" = 50'

Sept. 16/38

Reiner-Rilington Mines Ltd.

P2N/4W

S2N-4

N

+5" only shows out. Veins stringers of mineral. Noticeably post-mineral. 30 NW. Noticeably have post-mineral fault-fissures which appear to be crushed. 30 NW. have post-mineral fault-fissures which appear to be crushed.

Fault-fissures to be of two 55-60° sets

Fault-zone 1-2' wide

Vein 1-3' wide, 10 to 15 ribbons of brittle qtz & rock. Noticeable crushing in zones. Vein is occasional patches of qtz & py, in general leaning qtz & py in vein is barren.

60° dip on a good HW slip, 1-2' wide, to Flat-slip

Vein gets out of sight to the south-east

5' fault-zone, 1' wide, 2" frags barren of Q.

Vein widened out to 5' here consists of crushed rock & fault-like matter. Cash from fine specks of sch.

Vein 2' pyqo

Vein gets out to the south-east becomes ribboned 1-3" in limestone & pinches out. Strike N.E. Dip 45° S.E. Mineral sparse

Rose "C"

MAIN FAULT

Rattle case

Sch. 1/8" "A" 2' wide & qtz

Sch. 1/8" "A" 2' wide & qtz

Sch. 1/8" "A" 2' wide & qtz