

924/2w

92L-15

012243

Name: Rey Ore - Manager, Ed. Brown.
Mine Foreman Al. Harris.

Location: 3 miles by horse-trail from Ryan's warehouse at Privateer.

Elevations: Camp 1200 feet.
Workings 1250 - 1700 feet.

Surface Workings: Open-cuts on several uneconomically shears and quartz ribbons.

Underground Workings:

Drift on main vein	364 feet.
Sills	140 feet.
Raises	76 feet.
Crosscut	70 feet.

Vein: Shear-zone 1 inch - max. 2 feet of gouge, crushed rock and leached rock and containing a discontinuous ribbon of quartz, good sulphides from 1-inch to 3 inches wide, ribbon sometimes separated from wall by only a thin black gouge.

Backs: 76 feet.

Rock Formation: Quartz diorite.

Examined September 7th and 8th, 1938.

Rey Oro Gold Mining Co. Ltd., Gold Creek, Zeballos.
Trail Record for August 17.

Total Wages-----$462.50

Cost of Materials

1 Case of Powder-----

6 Kegs of Spikes----- Aug 17 to Sept 8

50 Feet of Fuse---

20 Caps-----

Total Amount

Distance of Punching-----1422 feet, for Aug. 4 feet 6 inches Wide

Spetember

Total Wages-----$202.50

Distance of Punching 1248 feet 4 feet 6 inches wide

924/2W

924-15