

672299

Swab
Group

- very few alaskite boulders E of 400W
- boulders were are relatively ^{small} well rounded to angular
 - size - from 3" to 24" - a few were much larger, but not many of these.
 - alaskite boulders seemed more angular & generally quite large WRT size (in) 18"-24".
- basalt, ^{pyroxenite} most abdt rock types, respectively
- sulphides found in: ^{pyroxenite} zblende, qtz diorite, trachyte, syenite,
- alaskite found in lg quantities at base of ridge & their #'s decr as you move south
- background scintometer readings 100+ ~~max~~
 - a few went over this.