

Clay-sericite altered, gossanous, quartz phyric tuffs (EBr?) exposed in a stripped area next to Pat's forestry road on the Babs property. The tuffs are strongly oxidized and locally have malachite on weathered surfaces. This is one of the only exposures of bedrock on the property.

676193