

View east towards Babine Lake and MacDonal-Sterrett Island (Granisle waste dumps barely visible). The rocky knolls in the foreground are part of a well-exposed, east dipping succession of Lower Jurassic volcanics. The light weathering rock is flow banded rhyolite; brown weathering outcrops are basaltic volcanoclastic rocks and flows.

676197