Cheni has announced it has delineated an economic tonnage from recent drilling program testing E-Scan targets on Duke's Ridge zone. It will be mined this fall. A portal site has been established and approx. 90 metres of decline will be driven to allow shrinkage mining of the zone (25 metres strike and 35 metres depth). Reserve is 3245 short tons grading 1.69 opt Au and 101.7 opt. Ag. Other newly identified silicified structures will be examined next year. work this year has concluded with the onset of an early winter. Tom.
