

802068.

Name: Maggie

Location: NTS Area 92 I/14
Lat. 50° 55' 30" Long. 121° 25' 10"
Mining Division: Kamloops
- property located approx. 9-10 miles NW of Cache Creek/
Cache Creek approx. 56 miles W of Kamloops at junction of Hwy. 1 and 97.

Owner: Bethlehem Copper Corporation

Description: copper-molybdenum deposit in a quartz monzonite porphyry and granodiorite/occurs as disseminations and veinlets/
molybdenite confined largely to copper zone

Reserves: 181,440,000 tons grading .28% Cu and .029% MoS₂
(CIM Special Vol. 15, 1976, p. 329)

200 million tons grading .28% Cu and .029% MoS₂
(Jambor, J.L., GSC Paper 75-17) (drill indicated)
Ag is associated with property

Development: 1890 - discovery
1896-1907 - various owners, u/g drifting and development
1915-1930 - property unwatered but no extensive work
1952 - Kennco Exploration Ltd. option - 3 holes
1963-1964 - Frober Ltd. - drilling
1968-1976 - Bethlehem Copper Corp. option, drilling - 93
holes, 63,928'; mapping

Potential
Operation:

Open pit

Impediments:

- overburden cover (?)
- environmental - property close to a highway
 - stream on top of deposit
- corporate priorities; company concerned at present with the development of the Lake Zone property and their total Highland Valley operation

Comments:

- property 35 miles NW of Highland Valley operations (Jersey)
- no mention within Bethlehem Corp. AR 1974-1978
- dimensions of the orebody have not been fully developed but further exploration has been deferred (Bethlehem Copper Corp., Financial Post Corporate Service, Dec. 20, 1977)