

092H/15

[JLH]

Hozameen

821047

IDP: altered flow material → splotchy green tuffaceous rock
- due to short-term hiatus in of volcanism → subaerial weathering early
- not alteration but early weathering → add to notes

172.201

1983

Sumallo Brook
below Silvertip

June 26/83

- end of road in avalanche at 1255m

21/201 head of valley 1495m H2 basalt / andesite, medium green with whit chlorite along slickensided surfaces

- amygdaloidal rarely but typically aphanitic

- massive but vague pillows in one d/c

- ct veins

- talus rusty basalt w. py > po none observed in d/c

21/202 along base of 1500m +15
H2 cliff

- ribbon chert: various grey + black, locally well banded, banded but very contorted

- py very finely diss.
throughout → locally rusty

+1280m

SV 203 +184m 1495me
#2 - ? intermediate VC / mafic VC
? bleached light gray to green,
? sericite alteration w. silicification
- massive amt Ct veins + fractures
- py very finely disseminated < 10 esp along Ct veins + blebs of po to 1cm interbedded with black cherts in places catclastic texture → Opelli sized fragments uncalcareous matrix

+ chl veins to stringers

SV 204 +228 1575me
#2 - basalt - light green to gray, diffuse changes in colour
- ? sericite, silica alteration
- amt v. fr. irreg Ct stringers w to po
- very abundant w chlrite along slickensided surfaces po up to 1% as cm sized clots assoc. w. green fibrous actinolite

SV 205 +100M 1575me

H2 ? intrusive or megacrystic - white, med. x line, granular
- massive

SV 206 +110M 1540me

H2 ? ^{Gt-diopside}
- ~~gran~~ light green with irregular pink patches elongate parallel to shear, very calcareous
- actinolite patches
- very granular - no cleavage visible to → basalt, med green with maussinite ? Ep, chlrite

- po in very fine Ct stringers to to < 1% , very finely disseminated

↔↔ metasomatism near center 0

668

✓ IDP

768

✓ IDP

→ looks more like bleached amygdaloidal basalt - → with ^{minor} lenses of actinolite or just so fizzes in places where lighter green in colour + coarser xline

ST 207 o/c at S edge 2nd open H2 faces w window /370me basalt, light green to grey, variably silicified + sericitized abnt frct veinlets \pm ch. po
- strong pervasive defnt

- minor anhedral dark brown, medium crystalline sphalerite → ch. sph in some samples

Summit Creek
- no set altimeter

July 27/83
June 27

Claim post 65117 Patti for V. Ryback
July 14/81 onto Bear #2 (2 post)

H2 208 /350me base of waterfall basalt: massive wavy weathering, light green to grey, variably silicified + sericitized, locally chlorite.
<1% po finely disseminated

4200'

→ Zn !!!

HARVY 3S 2E LCP
July 11/81 532421, 22

at S edge of talus 4100' rarely ↑ along stringers → cm clots

+ along shears

- in places limy with ? lapilli or cataclastic texture

± Ep

± 170m.

1410me

HZ209 rusty weathering cliff → basalt, vesicular in places to ? variolitic, vesicles variably unfilled w chl or v. for x-lms po

- highly variable from dark green, chloritic to light green with some pink → ? silica + sericite

- po in neg. stringers to very fine diss. to ? corroded cubes + along

→ BCS 431

for Ni, Co

- coarser x-lms w Cd + local cathedral dark brown sphalerite
? remobilized veins or recrystall
- only trace overall; rare clots to

Tiro #1 Ryback - Hardy paper message

v. 4300'

limonitic w. powdery bright yellow weathering

→ silicification + bleaching foliation plane.

zld
cm w. po

H2210 into trees N side of slide N of small creek + 200M basalt: variable substitution + sercite max (< 10% to trace mostly)
- po < 1-2% very finely disp.
to coarsely crystalline clots to 1cm + fine irregular venulets; trace sphalerite along fine stringer

→ rusty weathering material like H2209 but lacking earthy yellow coating
- angular basalt w.
some pink patches
- po 1% average.

FLOAT

- very weathered, limonitic coated. 2-3cm w flakes of sercite 2-3mm below po + fine clasts of argillite
- ? portion of vein immediately across valley from Benis 1485 Me 4 close-spaced 4500' creeks extends about 50m across in low scrub

fr. v. fr. xline Cpx

+200m

1495me

HZ211

old workings; at end of old road dull sites, cabini - many basalt, variably vesicite, chlorite, silica; in places amygdaloidal

w. po filling amygdules po 1-2% as fr. des, small clots

Pus near area of workings

Mss → po to 20% average 2-5% but very erratic

↑ all^y whungers, whears

- lesser → h. Cpy, sph

- wide variation colour + relief in in basalt, in places bleached, with minor chl. along ^{later} fractures (in places chl → actinonite)

- coarser po in elongate patches or streaks is with coarser chl.

- all po abundantly fractured claim parts all from 1966

Allison Pass Mine
APM ~~III~~

→ very patchy, multi-episode
silicification

- most massive po concentrated along elongate "veins" with granular schistose po intergrown with andesitic to andesitic σ ; "veins" are elongate || schistosity. ? relation to bedding

- ground mass: variably silicified, ?
bleached mafic vc w. discrete amygdules filled w. chlorite sparsely visible

- increasingly bleached zones surround some of larger coarser crystalline po areas

Sulphide-rich areas are highly erratic, discontinuous - most like crude linear features but less like veins due to brittle fracture than shears parallel to tectonic fabric with subsequent movement via folding

Po >>> sph >> Crp but highly irregular Po as large "eyes" ^{or coarse} in places ^{like} to several cm which may be bounded ^{often} by chloritic or actinolitic areas
- tarnishes within hours
- in places crudely banded with dark bro sph interlayered w Φ \rightarrow most ^{like} vein-like crustiform bands \leftarrow very localized

HZ 212 +125m N side of creek. basalt ped. white to pinkish, well bleached silicified, sericitized

Rusty weathering - partly to to tally limonitic

→ could be pentlandite or just reprecipitated
PO

→ away from massive areas, po finely disp in basalts or concentrated in vfr vesicles

→ po to 20% of boulders locally or across 10cm in o/c massive for assay BCS 422

- massive samples show well-defined schistosity

1505me

- looks like Sudbury ore

- abrt. irregular close-spaced Ct veins \pm po; + po very finely disseminated → overall 1%

- rusty weathering as before
- abundantly calcareous
- tr. v. fr. xline cpy w po

- above altinoto readings OK

SUMALLO

logging road w/ bridge w/ June 28/83 leaves main road 150m

HZ 213

1275 m

Basalt, amygdaloidal (flattened vesicles) → variable green to white → ? sercite + silica

- chlorite vesicles, dark green same

→ more olive ? Ep

- trace po in irregular blebs - fine!

- well developed whorls

- ? cataclastic textures as lapilli
- strongly effervesces

1220 m Road to E down towards creek

1075 me road to NW

1250 me road to SE ? lower road chlorite along slickensided surfaces desseminated

→ calc unlikely

+1335 road to S upslope + up valley → possible o/c

H2214 just before blip down o/c on air photo 1400m
? metasediment and interbedded light grey chert
- well bedded on 1-5cm scale but abundantly folded
- light grey, alut v. fr. filled fractured
- relaxed strong sheared fabric but relatively hard, no effervescence. → phyllitic in places

NOTE: entire valley much ↓ rusty weathering po-bearing float - tho. such float w. h. cpy (rounded) in several places

June 28/83

- finish Sunshine Valley main road

- left off at SF sample w. 3 w/c pillow

HZ215

- somewhat fresher than brownish friable exfoliated pillow selvage

- coarsely v. fine basalt, to 3 vesicles or weathering → lens

- slightly brownish → weathered

→ B

Pillow

centre not selvage

HZ216 +530m

basalt/andesite, upward →

green schistose

- no fizz + very fine isn't in fragment → ash tuff rather than cataclastic

- interbed w ribbon cherts, contorted w/haugholts partings

cherts >>> B

→ even at centre → ? very vesicular po 1% very finely disseminated

IDP: mafic metabc schistose

- texture not alteration

HZ217 +720m

basalt ? pillowed, very dark ± fr. Ct-filled vesicles, sparse Q veins; not pieces strongly effervesce

B << argillites with variable ants white to grey to black cherts; locally graphitic
- variably phyllitic, contorted

+ 30 dirt to intrusive, salt + pepper colour

- corroded subrounded mafic xenoliths to several cm in diam O/C

HZ218 +240m

RIBBON chert: various grey to black, cm bdd, but very irregular folds, convoluted

- lesser argillites, up to beds, very sheared

- fr. py, limonitic unplaces

- vesicles 10% → 0%

- sharp contact weds + much less contacted → could be fine line dolerite dyke

- minor py, limonitic

▶ granitic

- but very fine xenolith almost resembles lapilli

HZ 219 +510m just after S road cherty argillite to chert, strongly sheared, H. py, clinoritic

HZ 220 +500m
argillite -> chert as before, but no clear gradation in ole between two ? remobilization w/ flowage ? metamorphism
- very constricted

Plus Granite - intrusive, prod equigranular w. visible Bi → aphanitic

HZ 221

argillite + chert as before

← End of river →

↳ but some chert almost resembles remobilized vein material walk wash-out

- copy, locally limited

WRAY Creek

June 30/83

o/c

490m argillites, bk, locally phyllitic and hematitic, f. py

- contorted

HZ 222

510m

DYKE

weathered basalt w. possible pillows - vague spherical shape
- coarsely x-line flow, slightly weathered with some exfoliated sheets; brown-grey to green colour; fossils like fossils material on Sunshine Valley Rd but strong effervescence
- sparse Fp phenocrysts velocity

- sharply X cuts foliation in surrounding sediment 170° 70° \square W but wide local crenulations

o/c

+ 220m

530m

resembles coarsely xeno flow centre

6670

→ abnt crenulobd argillites

4.6

argillites

- minor Quercus → limantic

H2223. +240m^(Total +460m) 565me

- andesite ? - some pieces show some vague lapilli ← ash tuff
- light green to green grey
- variably calcareous
- well sheared to schistose in places; with abnt chlorite or siderated surfaces
- minor Ct veins
- interbedded w abnt argillites

H2224 + 240m 585me

- ? basalt / andesite foliated, almost schistose with vague ash fragments
- ↳ cataclastic texture
- ^{green} mica schist in places
- + chlorite, ? Bi (green)
- sh py
- no fizz

H2225 + 300m . 620me

? andesite, light green with → very fine ^{? brown} micaceous patches to splotches

→ green chlorite mica volist saussurite

IDP:

- too soft to be silicified
saussurite

sparse darker green amygdules (remnants)

- foliated \rightarrow schistose
- irregular chloritic patches
along slickensided surfaces
- soft
- trace py

+700m road to Berkeley Creek

H \rightarrow 226

+300m

695m

mica schist, ^{light} green, well developed foliation \rightarrow schistosity

- patchy remnants may be chlorite

160/80° W interbedded w white chert on 2-5 cm scale, with small scale convolution

- calcite veins sparse, unreg

+400m \rightarrow landslide blocks road. 740m

? IDP: how judge islica + sericite

-saurite

→ labelled B/A on map any gulls remnants

H2227 +310m 795me
Ribbon chert, well bdd. no evident convolutions, unsmooth o/c → 285/10°S
-alnt @ veins

H2228 +235m 820me
stream o/c chert, black, massive, conchoidal fracture, ^{to green} varietal (veins)
- faintly banded in hand sample scale but o/c appears
massive
+ 1st, dark grey, medium crystalline beds to .3m thick but bedding not well defined
? 265/80°S

H2229 +60m 815me
- mica schist (green), variable
'chloritic'
- no remnant texture visible
- unbedded w. carbonaceous argillites, well sheared, sh. py
- contorted

← chlorite along slickensided
surfaces

→ labelled A/B

- +3.0 Km no o/c
- return to truck
- no o/c visible near road on opposite side of valley

July 4/83
560m

Silvertip Road
main Ross L. Road

H2230 46m 560m metavolcanic or A metasediment, dark brown grey, weathers dark grey; foliated
- cherty implosions, locally micaceous hematitic
- no fizz

- abnt large subnd ? dc or boulders of Q dnt ← maybe rods or c else to intrusive contact → hornfelsed metased or +634m road around hill

H2 231 +707m to dc at edge of c

↔ photos 15BC 78 101 033, 034 051, 50

to spotted white + grey → gneiss, well banded on fresh face but bands not otherwise visible
- chloritic ? mica → Biotite gneiss
- ~~lesser~~ coarser crystalline & actinolite bands
- limonite in places

retave

660me

? metasediment, very dark black, finely crystalline/grained no obvious bedding or foliation but marked schistosity
- sparse fr. meg. Quartz

HZ 232 +150m 635me

- ? metaseds, non effervescent argillites to ? metapelites, dark grey to maroon with weighty coarser lenses
- elongate parallel to bands
- local chloritic patches = py
- sparse py + remnants with trace Cu stain + single .5cm + Lt. dk grey to fully recrystallized

HZ 233 +142m 615me

mag. to intermediate metavolcanic, light green with irregular chloritic patches to sericite surfaces + chl. any gr
- abundant Ct veins + v.
abnt meg. grey along fractures
- Ep, Wausonite, Ct
- probably unroofed ? relatively h.c.

? metapelite; relatively hard tho. not cherty

→ locally banded with bands defined by D colour

- ? fossils 1-2mm subround bk

? chitino-phosphatic

TALUS

- cherty and lighter colour in places

SAVED sample looks more like metavolcanic but w. patches of lighter colour.

slab anhedral cpy

Talus: very low + sod but definitely angular

→ ; possible flow banding

H2234 + 330m 660me
at small creek, very angular
- mafic volcanic, light green with grey lapilli, calcareous, somewhat isolated and often schistose
- also est, argillites as previously
- Ct veins

+600m est. 700me elevation est d/c

H2235 + 18m TALUS mafic volcanic, schistose, variable light to dark green w. schist contact schist
- poss. lapilli tuff in place
+ argillite, schistose ← block chert
- v. abnt quartz veins

H2236 + 150m TALUS 665me Chert, block, recrystallized est quartz veins
- near end of 2000' lump

1300m from start of cliff boulders

green ? chloritic or mica schist

636

+1500m

probable

→ limy lapilli tuff

→ o/c

+950

HZ 237 +150m 635me
mafic metavolcanic - AMPHIBOLITE/
- light green, schistose; may be buff & could be cataclast
- ?massive
- may be

HZ 238 +150m 615me
as above, more abundant moss-covered talus

HZ 239 +150m 635me
chert, block, poorly banded with interbedded argillites
- abnt. \odot veins
- in places vague fragments
visible

HZ 240 +145m 655me
ms of c. rimed above, angular talus sounds of creek to west
- mafic metaV, local green w irreg grey patches and extending out along fractures schistose \rightarrow schist in places

42100M

isolated exposed pieces of tubes

2850

d/c

with some slightly coarser line Bi areas along planes of schistosity

→ out to road ± 500 m. out to gravel pit at W end of knob.