

MASSET INLET

The Sandspit fault cuts the north coast of Masset Inlet somewhere between the McKay Range and Kieta Island. To the north numerous north east trending lineaments are present.

A gold showing within a trachyte unit of the Masset Formation is located on Harrison Island to the south of Masset Inlet.

Except for a few islands at the mouth of the Ain River the ground is unstaked.

1:125,000