

snow and late summer conditions has altered his plans. His central base is in the Hazelton area. A tour of regional geology in the East-Half is planned for early September.

Canadian Nickel Company - Terrace Area and Bear Lake

CANICO has a crew doing reconnaissance work out of Terrace as well as a small amount of property work. Diamond drilling is in progress on their property west of Bear Lake.

Climax Molybdenum - Hudson Bay Mountain

Climax this month completed 8 percussion and diamond drill holes for assessment purposes.

Amax - Shass Mountain

Amax has begun a program of 27 percussion drill holes on their Shass Mountain molybdenum prospect located some 28 air miles north of the town of Fraser Lake. Fred Harris is the geologist in charge. Amax is also following up anomalies previously known in the Endako area.

Granges Exploration - Nanika Lake

Granges is currently diamond drilling the Aston Option on west shore of Nanika Lake. The property has been drilled previously by Quintana, Ned Reid, the geologist in charge, is not too optimistic about the property. They will continue working on this property until September probably. Very shortly they will also begin to drill an old Phelps Dodge property on Flat Top Mountain east of Houston.

Cominco - Driftwood Range

A two men crew led by Dragan Bravec spent a few days exploring and sampling the Driftwood Range.

Quintana Minerals - Poplar Lake

Quintana has begun line cutting on their Lily porphyry copper property located on the south side of Poplar Lake approximately 32 air miles south