Paul, I ran into someone yesterday (I don't know if I trust him) who told me that Kodiak Expl'n spent $400K on the (Yellow) Yeti project this past summer. The last info I have in my files is Stockwatch, June 21, 2005. Do you have anything more recent, and specifically - what do you have for expenditures on this project for 2005?

Thanks, Paul - I had previously given it $20K - will bump it up to $60K.

Just made a phone call to Rein Tourna. I had not counted any $ for Yellow Yeti, assumed that Kodiak buggered off to Ontario after losing interest in Tommy Jack.

But Rein figures they spent $60K. Sounds right for 3 week heli-program by 3 people from Telegraph. No success, no more work expected.
